

Q Do you know who the lady in the office was?

A Miss Hettye Hahn.

Q Hettye Hahn. Did you ask Mr. Storm to furnish the deed, or who called for you to come to the office?

A My brother Everett.

Q And you went to the office, and then what was done?

A Well, he had the deeds there and read them, and I read them and signed them. That is all was to it, and paid him.

Q Miss Hahn was the Notary? A Notary Public.

Q And he paid you for the property? A Yes.

Q Did you have the deed recorded?

A He did, I guess. I didn't.

Q You don't recall that you recorded it?

A I don't remember any recording of it.

Q Everett made all of the arrangements for the transaction?

A That's right.

Q And you came in and signed the deed that they handed to you, is that right?

A That's right.

Q I believe you testified you came up to the place to hunt and fish, is that right?

A Yes.

Q How frequently did you come up there?

A I went up every fall. I never missed a fall hunting.

Q And ^{when} you came up for how long did you stay; a couple days?

A No, just come up and hunt a day and go back. I stayed up there one night. He came down and got me and my wife one day, I stayed all night that night - it wasn't all night either - I reckon I stayed from about 2 o'clock till morning, something like that - it was that time when we got there.
